

We believe children have the right to be respected and valued for who they are as an individual. They have the right to play and to feel safe and secure.

We believe children's voices are acknowledged, encouraged and respected.

We believe our environment is cared for and respected through embedded sustainable practises

We value the importance of inclusion. We welcome and celebrate diversity.

UnitingCare Forestville Preschool Philosophy

UnitingCare Forestville Preschool is a play-based learning environment, providing excellence in quality education and care.

We believe ongoing professional learning, theory, research, reflection and practise informs the documentation and planning for children's learning and development.

We believe in developing positive partnerships with our families and the community.

We believe in providing an environment where educators work collaboratively with the children to foster their love of learning.

We believe in valuing respectful relationships, where individuals' cultures, experiences and skills are acknowledged and celebrated. We are an inclusive service that treats everyone fairly, advocating equality, wellbeing and a strong sense of belonging.

Informing our philosophy with the Early Years Learning Framework, The National Quality Standards, The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and The Code of Ethics.
